Democratic Nominations. EDWARD L. CKONKRITE, of Stephenson. SAMUEL M. ETTER, of McLean.

Gold in New York unchanged-1001/2.

THE Democrats have decided in caucus to investigate the electoral frauds. That's

In the last issue of the American Journal of Education a full page is devoted to a description of Southern Illinois Normal University, at Carbondale.

It is a suggestive fact that Hayes has not a single upholder in the New York daily press-unless it be the Evening Post, which just now amounts to very little, politically.

THE Democratic Convention, at Salem, Ill., on Wednesday, instructed its delegation to vote for J. O. Chance for Clerk of the Supreme Court, Southern Grand Divi-

A MYSTERIOUS disease in New York has been traced to the presence of trichina in shad eaten by the sufferers. Heretofore it has been supposed that this dreadful parasite existed only in the system of the hog. No one can say that it does not exist in other animals-and it is probable after awhile that all animals, fish, flesh and fowl, will have to be thoroughy cooked before is can afely be eaten.

MR. SCOTT LORD, the counsel for contestants in the Vanderbilt will case is confident of success. He complains that the press of New York, with the exception of the Tribune, has not treated the court proceedings fairly, and says the public will be astounded when it comes to receive all the testimony in his possession. He will prove, he says, among other things, that the dead Commodore defrauded the city of New York out of a vast amount of money, which can now be recovered from the estate.

THE Chicago Inter-Ocean springs this:-It is dated Sp.ingfield:

"A new plan is being privately talked of in certain circles which is thought will solve the whole question of Illinois politics this fall. It is proposed to bring out John A. Logan for state treasurerthat he make a thorough canvass of the State-that with his aid there will be no doubt of securing a Republican legislature, and no doubt of his election as treasurer. It is deemed certain that this course will give the Republicans a legislature which will elect Logan senator. There is no intimation yet whether Logan will accept the place, but the presumption is that he will in view of the prospect he would have for the senatorship. It is thought here to be a winning card,"

Logan will not accept. A defeat for State Treasurer would make him the deadest political duck in the land. He will not risk it.

THERE seems to be little doubt that John E. Binckley, assistant Attorney General of the United States, committed suicide by drowning. He left several letters addressed to different persons, the contents of which show conclusively his intention to take his life. All efforts to recover his body has thus far been unavailing. The immediate cause of the rash act is attributed to mental aberration, brought on by dom stie difficulties. Mr. Binckley's family consists of a wife, from whom he was separated, and four children, who are now at Knoxville, Tenn.

THE Pittsburg Post, speaking of a contemporary's criticisms upon the discharge of Phillips, arraigned for a murder alleged to have been committed during the July riots in 1877, lays the homicide at the doors of the military ordered there without authority, and says: "Admitting the troops were lawfully summoned, they acted in an unlawful manner by firing into a mass of people without orders from their officers, which has been denominated by the highest military authority in the regular army as murder. Ten of our citizens were shot in- ture.

stantly on Saturday, murdered in cold blood, and eight more killed Saturday night; yet not a soldier was disabled until the next day, when they ran away from the storm they had raised and fled like a lot of cravens to the hills, with no one pursuing. If it was important to raise the question in relation to unlawful presence of the troops. It could be sustained beyond all doubt; but it is bad enough as it is, and the men who killed ten people without authority, who were neither strikers nor rioters, ought to be tried for murder.

THE Paducah News says: "The last election for Congress in the Cairo, Illinois, District was very close, Hartzell, the Democratic candidate, receiving a majority of only twenty votes. It behooves the Democracy of that district to look sharp and put a good man in the field as well as to put in their best licks, as they have a very narrow margin to work on. We don't want Ben. Wiley or any other Radical to carry Southern Illinois, for we have a sort of an affection for that section of the country." Our friends on the other side of the river may rest easy on this score. We have half a dozen Democrats in the district, all of them in training, any one of whom will lead the Democracy to victory next Fall.

THE Valley Clarion wants to enthuse on the coming Fourth of July, the one hundreth anniversary of the capture of Fort Gage and Kaskaskia. In the course of an article on the subject it says that "on the evening of July 4, 1778, General George Rogers Clarke, with his Virginia volunteers, captured Fort Gage and took possession of the town of Kaskaskia. This was the end of British rule in Illinois. On the Fourth of July, 1878, one hundred years will have rolled away since the stars and stripes first floated over Garrison Hill, opposite Kaskaskia, in token that British control of the fair Prairie State had ended, and that henceforth. for all time, this was American soil, and its inhabitants American citizens." It then proceeds to suggest "that the only appropriate place for a Centennial jubilee in commemoration of this great historical event, is on the top of Garrison Hill, on the ruins of old Fort Gage, overlooking Kaskaskia, the old historic territorial capital of Illinois, and from whence the American flag first triumphantly kissed the sunlight of Illinois, as the red cross of St. George came down, and the sun set on British rule in the "Illinois country," forever. Let us all join in urging that a Centennial pilgrimage be made by the people of our State, on this anniversary day, to the spot where the flag of freedom was first unfurled in the great Mississippi valley." Further on it also suggests that "Gen. Jas. Shielde the Irish orator, patriot, soldier and statesman, who, near a half century ago, taught the village school at Kaskaskia, and began the practice of his profession there, under the shadow of Garrison Hill, be selected as the orator of the day."

THE Syracuse Journal relates a remarkable story. It says one of ingenious women whose business it is to examine mutilated and illegible currency in the treasury has recently come to grief. This woman had so ably performed this intricate work for several years as to have become almost indispensable, not only to the department but scarcely less so to numerous banks in different parts of the country, who but for her patience, must have lost considerable sums in worn currency. Her skill in restoring what looked like a hopeless mass was marvelous, and in consideration of her perseverance in this direction, some of the banks have from time to time attested their appreciation of the material benefit thus derived by handsome donations of money, one or two, it is understood, paying her as high as $1,000 a year. I take equal pride in the gallantry of such men and the ability of such a woman. Too often are women made feel that they gain nothing marked fidelity. These from the banks were, of course, in addition to the regular salary paid by the Treasury, of $1,200. For a considerable time it was sadly noticed that this woman was manifestly falling into the insidious power of a terrible siren. Often and again, it could not be denied, she was not quite herself long before the hour for the close of work. Admonitions, kind and gentle, and warnings oft repeated, were of no avail. She was hopelessly enthralled. At last she came to the office one morning already too oblivious to faithfully perform her usual task, and, as patience had long since ceased to be a virtue, a carriage was called and she was sent, a victim of alcohol to her home, there to find that the ominious yellow envelope containing a notice of her dismissal from service had preceeded her coming. Strange to say, her predecessor in the same position, who had served long and acceptably, but for this weakness, was dis-

EIGHTY TROUSAND DRUNKARDS .- It is estimated that in the United States eighty thousand drunkards die annually, twenty thousand of whom acquire the habit through physician's prescriptions, or the use of "temperance bitters" and "tonies," which are, for the most part composed of whisky that has been reputiated by the "bar," but by a little "doctoring' and "puffing" speedily becomes a favorite "cureall." The fact that Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and his assistant chemists, do not use one drop of spirits in preparing his family medicines, has induced those utterly ignorant of the rudimentary principles of chemistry to attempt the manufacture of "temperance" medicines; but like many other impositions, that which they sought to rival and destroy lives and flourishes after them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is yet the standard remedy for the cure of coughs, colds consumption, liver complaint, blotches, pimples, tumors, and all blood diseases. Chronic constipation readily yields to the mild and efficient action of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets, while Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription readily cures those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Are you suffering with some chronic malady? If so, and you wish to employ medicines that are scientifically prepared, that are refined and purified by the chemical process employed in their manufacture, that are positive in their action and specific in the cure of the various forms of disease for which they are recommended, use Dr. Pierce's Family LADIES Medicines. Full particulars in Pierce's Memorandum Book, kept for free distribution by all druggists.
